God

Genesis 1:1

We can be confident that God exists ... we can be confident that God wants to have a personal intimate relationships with us and that He desires our affection.

We can be confident that God has plans for us in the present and in the ages to come. The beginning of understanding purpose and design, answering the question why are we here? is this ...

In the bible we READ -

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God created the heavens
and the earth.

Let's PRAY -

Father God

King of the universe, creator of all things ... we confess our belief in you and know that you are the provider of things seen and unseen.
Give us the confidence we need to trust you and to grow in our relationship together and with you.

Amen
